New to this lark?

Now in our 18th year. A dads n kids (also granddads & uncles too), but a mum-free-zone. It is the perfect win-win situation. You get to spend some special time with your child with lots of laughs. 'Coc' around with loads of gadgets, have a few beers and tell filthy campfire jokes. The kids have a wild time with loads of playmates and to keep everyone happy, Mum also has the weekend off too! COC is a loose gathering of ever expanding friends who either know me, or know someone locally with kids. It is a relaxed few days where individual dads meet up with friends and get to know their kids better, you can do as little or as much as you like.

This is our 7th year at Avon Tyrell, located near Burley, usually under two hours from west London, but on Friday night traffic is often heavy. Directions will be provided two weeks ahead, as will an info sheet, giving more specific details and tips on what to bring and how to organise for the trip. One of those spooky phenomenon, those that stay both nights are a lot more relaxed than the 'one nighters'. There is nothing more demoralizing than struggling to erect your tent for a couple of hours and then to have to take the blooming thing down less than 24 hours later. No tent or car, then we can usually find someone to help you.
